1. In 1948 the Medical College of the University of Bucharest was reorganized into the following departments: General medicine, Stomatology, Ophthalmology, and Hygiene. Each year is divided into study groups (actually political groups). These groups are directed by yearly committees composed of PCR (Rumanian Workers Party) agents. There is a secret file on each student in which his activities, past and present, are noted.
2. Communist professors work closely with the yearly committees. These professors follow committee lists and may change a student's grades or mark absences which never occur. The following are Communist professors who decide the status of each student according to his file:
 - a. Dr. Simion Oeriu, professor of Biochemistry, in the third year.
 - b. Dr. Tarcu, professor of Surgery, in the fourth, fifth, and sixth year.
 - c. Dr. Bernard Teitel, professor of Pharmacology, in the third year.
3. At the school, political meetings are held twice weekly where Marxist and Leninist theory is taught.
4. At the Danube-Black Sea Canal [REDACTED] in January 1951, groups of imprisoned politicians, 20 to 25 men in each group, who were levelling the ground. The guards are Rumanians of Hungarian origin. Each group was guarded by four men.
